

S&P Dow Jones Indices Wins Two Industry Awards for Market Leadership and Innovation

HONG KONG, September 2, 2015: S&P Dow Jones Indices (“S&P DJI”), one of the world’s leading index providers, announced today that it has been honored with two prestigious industry awards in Asia – the “Index Provider of the Year” in Structured Products Awards Asia 2015 and the “Best Index Provider for ETFs – Equity” in The Asset Triple A Asia ETF Awards 2015. These latest recognitions bring the number of industry accolades S&P DJI has received so far this year to seven.

“We feel gratified and privileged to have been honored with these two prestigious awards recognizing our market leadership and groundbreaking initiatives in developing financial market index solutions throughout Asia,” says Alex Matturri, CEO at S&P Dow Jones Indices. “Asia is the fastest-growing region in terms of investment assets yet it features vastly different investment philosophies and goals among different markets and investors. We are proud to always stay at the forefront of index innovation whilst ensuring that our index designs fully reflect the unique investment preferences of Asian investors.”

Honored respectively by Structured Products Asia and The Asset, two top-tier industry magazines focusing on Asia Pacific, the Structured Products Awards Asia and The Asset Triple A Asia ETF Awards are designed to recognize the top financial firms as well as the strongest specialized service providers including index and ETF providers that service the region.

The latest awards continue S&P DJI’s winning streak in Asia this year with a series of industry accolades honored by Asia-based publications. These include “ETF Index Provider of the Year in Asia” and “Best Smart Beta Strategy” in the ETF and Indexing Awards 2015, and “Index Provider of the Year” in the Best of the Best Awards 2014, both presented by the Asia Asset Management magazine.
