

S&P Dow Jones Indices Announces the Reopening of the Consultation on the Eligibility of Non-Voting Share Classes

New York, MAY 15, 2017: S&P Dow Jones Indices (“SPDJI”) is re-opening this consultation in order to gather additional comments from market participants. The new closing date is June 30, 2017. Between now and September 1, 2017, companies whose only publicly listed shares are non-voting will not be added to SPDJI indices. There will be no changes to the treatment of current index constituents. New publicly listed share classes of existing constituents introduced during this interim period that meet index inclusion criteria will be added to the relevant index.

The full text of the Consultation can be found here. The website at www.surveymonkey.com/r/EONVSC is reopened and will be available through June 30, 2017.
