Joining Forces

S&P Dow Jones Indices

is the largest global resource for essential index-based concepts, data and research, and home to iconic financial market indicators, such as the S&P 500® and the Dow Jones Industrial Average®. More assets are invested in products based on our indices than products based on indices from any other provider in the world. Since Charles Dow invented the first index in 1884, S&P DJI has been innovating and developing indices across the spectrum of asset classes, helping to define the way investors measure and trade the markets.

S&P DJI and Bolsa de Santiago

joined forces in order to fulfill the changing needs of the global market. Our jointly developed indices will provide local and global investors, asset managers, and product issuers with innovative and practical tools for measuring markets that can be used to underlie liquid financial products, expanding the breadth and depth of the Chilean capital market. Clients will directly benefit from S&P DJI's expanded platform for growth in Latin America and Bolsa de Santiago's knowledge of the Chilean marketplace and its investors.

Bolsa de Santiago

is home to well-known indices, such as the Índice de Precio Selectivo de Acciones (IPSA), and covers several markets that currently trade over USD 1.5 billion per day in equities, fixed income securities, money market instruments, investment fund shares, and foreign securities. Over the last 10 years, the Bolsa de Santiago has evolved into a focal point for global investors and a strategic partner for other exchanges in Latin America. It has also prioritized the offering of new financial instruments, such as ETFs, venture securities, and derivatives.
