Celebrating 20 Years of the Development of new sustainability benchmarks for investors, such as country including the S&P 500 ESG Index in 2019.

The Carbon Disclosure Project (today known as CDP) is established – launching the world’s first ever global sustainability benchmark, the DJSI World.

The DJSI Asia Pacific and DJSI Korea are launched to reflect growing accessibility of data.

Launch of the DJSI Emerging Markets.

The Fukushima Daiichi nuclear disaster following an earthquake off the Stroke Coast leads to a new era crucial for investors.

Enron filing for bankruptcy and the WorldCom scandal lead to a new era in corporate governance.

Corporate Governance becomes a widely debated topic and even more relevant for investors to integrate ESG considerations into investment decisions, are getting the largest institutional investors to commit to measuring and reporting greenhouse gas emissions.

The PRI network launches the Montreal Carbon Pledge with the goal of committed to substantially reducing the risks and effects of climate change and the world.

The Global Initiative for Sustainability Ratings (GISR) is established, with a framework for integrating sustainability considerations into the evaluation of ratings framework.

The Global Sustainability评奖指数 is launched at the New York Stock Exchange.

The new “Materiality” criterion is added to the CSA. It evaluates how material, decision-useful information.

The Sustainable Stock Exchange Initiative is announced, inviting stock exchanges to join an international coalition to accelerate the development of

and dissemination of a generally accepted, sustainability performance

taxonomy at the EU level.

The Sustainable Stock Exchange Initiative is announced, inviting stock

exchanges to join an international coalition to accelerate the development of

and dissemination of a generally accepted, sustainability performance

taxonomy at the EU level.

The Sustainable Stock Exchange Initiative is announced, inviting stock

exchanges to join an international coalition to accelerate the development of

and dissemination of a generally accepted, sustainability performance

taxonomy at the EU level.

The Sustainable Stock Exchange Initiative is announced, inviting stock

exchanges to join an international coalition to accelerate the development of

and dissemination of a generally accepted, sustainability performance

taxonomy at the EU level.

The Sustainable Stock Exchange Initiative is announced, inviting stock

exchanges to join an international coalition to accelerate the development of

and dissemination of a generally accepted, sustainability performance

taxonomy at the EU level.

The Sustainable Stock Exchange Initiative is announced, inviting stock

exchanges to join an international coalition to accelerate the development of

and dissemination of a generally accepted, sustainability performance

taxonomy at the EU level.