

S&P 500 Benchmarked Assets Reach $7.8 Trillion; $3.05 Trillion Invested in Products Indexed to S&P DJI Indices

Explosive Year-over-Year AUM Growth in Products Based on S&P DJI Smart Beta Indices

New York, June 4, 2015: S&P Dow Jones Indices (“S&P DJI”), one of the world’s leading index providers, announced today that it has published its annual survey of indexed assets. According to the survey, approximately $7.8 trillion is now benchmarked to the iconic S&P 500® with $2.16 trillion of that figure directly indexed via exchange traded funds (ETFs), mutual funds, and other investment product structures.

All data in this press release are as of year-end 2014, unless otherwise noted. To view the complete survey, please click here.

Additional Survey Highlights

- Approximately $3.05 trillion is now directly invested in products based upon all equity and fixed income indices calculated and published by S&P DJI.
- Significant AUM growth seen in products based upon S&P DJI Smart Beta Indices (+55% year-over-year growth to $133.64 billion)
- ETF assets grew 24% year-over-year, driven by strong flows into US equities.
- Nearly $30 billion in assets are directly indexed to S&P DJI’s fixed income indices.

“With $7.8 trillion in assets now benchmarked, the S&P 500 has clearly made its mark as the premier measure of U.S. stock market performance for investors throughout the world,” says Alex Matturri, CEO of S&P Dow Jones Indices. “Investor interest in index products based upon S&P DJI indices continues to grow and be met by our leading family of U.S. stock market indices and increasingly by our growing family of fixed income indices.”

“While market cap weighted indices remain at the core of our offerings, we are now seeing strong growth in smart beta based index strategies amongst all of our client segments throughout the world,” continues Matturri. “Last year, we launched 89 smart beta indices to meet the growing needs of investors which resulted in a 55% year-over-year increase in indexed smart beta AUM. We expect investor appetite for innovative smart beta indices to proliferate over the next several years, and remain committed to increasing our offerings across all asset classes throughout the world.”
