S&P 500 Bond Mega Indices Consultation

NEW YORK, MARCH 27, 2018: S&P Dow Jones Indices (“S&P DJI”) is conducting a consultation with members of the investment community on potential changes to the S&P 500 Bond Mega Indices.

The indices are currently composed of bonds that are issued in the U.S. by companies in the S&P 500. U.S. registration types, including 144A securities, are included as eligible securities. To better suit non-U.S. investors, S&P DJI is proposing to make 144A issues ineligible for inclusion in the indices.

IMPACT ANALYSIS

The table below shows the number of securities affected for each index, if the above proposed 144A exclusion rule were applied to the current index composition.

QUESTIONS

Please answer the following questions and provide S&P DJI with the reasoning behind your answers:

1. Do you agree with the proposal to make 144A issues ineligible for inclusion in the indices?

2. Do you have any other comments or feedback regarding the proposed changes outlined above?

Your participation in this consultation is important as we gather information from various market participants in order to properly evaluate your views and preferences. S&P DJI will make responses to consultations freely available upon request.\(^1\) If you do not want your response to be made available, you must clearly state that in your response. Please respond to this survey by April 10, 2018. After this date, S&P DJI will no longer accept survey responses. Prior to the Index Committee’s final review, S&P DJI will consider the issues and may request clarifications from respondents as part of that review. Alternative options to the proposed questions after the deadline require that the consultation be re-opened to the public.
